

BEST MAN SO FAT HE STUCK IN CAB, SO SECRET'S OUT

Doormen and Bellboys Had to Pry Comerford From Door of Hansom.

AT LAST, HE'S SAVED!

And Then Bridal Dinner of Fat Man's Brother Proceeds, but Not Secretly.

John T. Comerford of No. 79 Hooper street, Brooklyn, the fattest best man on record, gave the secret away last evening after the wedding at which he attended his brother, by getting wedged in a hansom cab. It took the doorman and several bell boys at the Hotel Brevoort to dislodge the Honorable John, who weighs 300 pounds.

Once dislodged he proceeded with all dignity to a private dining room in the hotel and asked for "Mr. Murtha." "Twas a magic word, and the colossal figure passed from sight.

The dining room reserved for Mr. Murtha sheltered a wedding party. A reporter discovered Mr. Comerford occupying one side of a large table. Grouped about him were a young and blushing pair of newlyweds, still another pretty girl, and a matron who gazed fondly, ever and anon, upon the large-sized best man.

Efforts to learn the identity of Mr. Murtha brought only sheepish looks to the faces of the assembled diners. Then it all came out. Murtha, it seems, was the leader of a party of wedding guests bent upon the proverbial honeymoon humor. He and his cohorts last night had gone off on the wrong account, while the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Comerford, used his name at the Heslin's as a blind. They wished to dine in peace, and might have if only the bridegroom's best man and brother had not got wedged in that hansom.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn. They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy. A brother who wanted to make things merry for the bridal couple, had six motor cars waiting for the revelers. The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately. Then they waited outside the church armed with rice. When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully. Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Castro Reported Slain.
BORDEAUX, Nov. 8.—Passengers on the steamer ship Parou, which arrived here from Venezuelan ports, report that ex-President Castro has been assassinated in Venezuela by his own partisans, who were enraged at his hard treatment of them.

When in doubt say "Campbell's"

You are sure then to get soups positively pure, satisfying and wholesome.

You have a wide and tempting choice among the 21 different "kinds" of

Campbell's Soups

There is something to please every palate, and suit every occasion.

And you get our reputation and our absolute guarantee behind every can. Your money back if not satisfied.

"The red-and-white sets my heart
in a flutter.
With a great
rush,
That my lips
cannot utter."

21 kinds 10c a can

Asparagus
Beef
Bouillon
Celer
Chicken
Chicken Gumbo (Okra)
Clam Bouillon
Clam Consmome
Julienne
Moch Turtle

Mulligatawny
Mutton Broth
Ox Tail
Pork
Pepper Pot
Printanier
Tomato
Tomato-Olive Vegetable
Vermicelli-Tomato

Just add hot water,
bring to a boil, and serve.

JOSEPH CAMPBELL COMPANY
Camden N. J.

Look for the red-and-white label

Persons Wedded 65 Years.
Although former Judge and Mrs. Roger A. Pryor made no announcement to their friends, yesterday was their sixty-third wedding anniversary. The friends remembered the day and filled the house with many flowers and the hearts of the couple with warm congratulations at their home, No. 3 West Sixty-ninth street. Mrs. Pryor has been ill all autumn and was unable personally to receive the many callers.

English Hair Grower

American Rights Secured for New Drug CRYSTOLIS

Grows Hair an Inch Long in 30 Days—Stops Falling Hair, Dandruff and Itching Scalp—Restores Gray and Faded Hair to Natural Color and Brilliance.

CUT OFF FREE COUPON AND MAIL TO-DAY

Here's good news for the man who vainly tries to plaster a few scanty locks over "that bald spot." Good news for the woman whose hair is falling, whose locks are too scanty to properly pin up her hair.

Good news for both men and women who find a full head of hair in their comb every morning.

For men and women growing gray before their time, there is now a drug that restores hair to its original color, with dandruff, with dandruff, with dandruff, with all forms of hair and scalp trouble.

The Credit Laboratories, 97 11th av., Binghamton, N. Y., have secured the exclusive American rights for Crystolis, the famous English hair treatment.

Crystolis is a household word in Europe, where it is known as the most remarkable scientific discovery for promoting hair growth. It has won gold medals at Paris and Brussels.

It is the result of the earnest words of praise from those who have been fortunate enough to test its remarkable qualities.

Crystolis has been on sale in America for over a year now. Hundreds of men and women from every state undoubtedly hail it as a true hair restorer.

Once dislodged he proceeded with all dignity to a private dining room in the hotel and asked for "Mr. Murtha."

"Twas a magic word, and the colossal figure passed from sight.

The dining room reserved for Mr. Murtha sheltered a wedding party.

A reporter discovered Mr. Comerford occupying one side of a large table.

Grouped about him were a young and blushing pair of newlyweds, still another pretty girl, and a matron who gazed fondly, ever and anon, upon the large-sized best man.

Efforts to learn the identity of Mr. Murtha brought only sheepish looks to the faces of the assembled diners.

Then it all came out. Murtha, it seems, was the leader of a party of wedding guests bent upon the proverbial honeymoon humor.

He and his cohorts last night had gone off on the wrong account, while the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Comerford, used his name at the Heslin's as a blind.

They wished to dine in peace, and might have if only the bridegroom's best man and brother had not got wedged in that hansom.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and De Kuyt avenues, Brooklyn, by the Rev. James M. Murphy.

A brother who wanted to make things

merry for the bridal couple, had six

motor cars waiting for the revelers.

The car to be used by Mr. and Mrs. Comerford they decorated appropriately.

Then they waited outside the church armed with rice.

When the bride's brother, J. J. Farrell, came out and announced that the young couple were going to the Hotel Essex in Brooklyn they grinned gleefully.

Meanwhile the bridal couple slipped out the back way and went to the Bronx.

Two years ago James J. Comerford ran for alderman in the Thirteenth District, Brooklyn. He was defeated but won a bride, till yesterday Miss Sadie J. Farrell of No. 346 Clinton place, Brooklyn.

They were married at 6 o'clock in St. Ambrose's Roman Catholic Church, Tompkins and